I have lived in La Jolla for 67 years (since age 6). I graduated La Jolla High school in 1964 and after college, graduated law school in 1972. I have practiced law in private practice here in San Diego for 37 years, during that time I also ran two small businesses. In 1983 I became a private pilot and purchased a small firm specializing in light aircraft sales. In 1989 I formed an insurance brokerage here in La Jolla specializing in group health insurance. I retired in 2010, when I specialized in aviation law.

Since retirement, my wife and I have traveled extensively and I have been engaged in the following:

1. La Jolla Meals on Wheels - 10 years
2. USS Midway as a docent - 11 years
3. Board of Directors - San Diego Model Railroad Museum - 7 years
4. RSVP program of SDPD - just began
