

Tom Brady has been a resident of La Jolla for 51 years. He retired from public accounting in 2002, after serving as a partner with Peterson & Co. CPA's (now Squarmilner Peterson) a La Jolla firm. He is the owner of La Jolla Cottage Rentals which he established in 2006. He has been active in serving the community of La Jolla in various civic and charitable causes including the La Jolla Family YMCA, La Jolla Traffic & Transportation Board, La Jolla Coastal Access Board and has served as Treasurer of the La Jolla Village Merchants Association. He is currently serving on the Board of the LA Jolla Parks & Beaches, Inc. and the La Jolla Community Planning Association and is asking to be elected to a addition term of three years for that organization. He has also served on the Mayor's Parking Advisory Board, since 2009 and the Salvation Army's Adult Rehabilitation Center Advisory Council and the Catholic Charities, Diocese of San Diego, Board. He believes that he can continue to contribute to the La Jolla Community Planning Associate's goals of a better La Jolla.
