Principal Architect
Email: tcrisafi@islandarch.com

Tony Crisafi is a founding partner at Island Architects in La Jolla, California. He has over 40 years of experience as a custom residential architect in Ohio, California, Wyoming and Florida. Tony received his Architecture degree from the University of Notre Dame, his MBA from Case Western Reserve University. He is a LEED Accredited Professional and holds NCARB, national architectural certification.

Tony began his career in Northern Ohio designing new and remodeled homes in the historic communities of Shaker Heights and Gates Mills, Ohio. After relocating to San Diego in 1988, Tony continued his career designing and managing custom home projects in La Jolla, Rancho Santa Fe, Newport Beach, Beverly Hills and Los Angeles' Westside.

In 1992, Tony joined Drex Patterson in forming Island Architects in La Jolla. Tony and his partner Drex have designed numerous new and remodeled custom homes in San Diego County and Wyoming, as well as the Caribbean, where Island Architects was originally founded by Drex over 30 years ago. The firm has moved into another generation with new partner, Lisa Kriedeman.

Tony and his wife reside in the Point Loma community, after raising 3 children and seeing them off to their favorite regions of Northern California.
