

Mature and established Magnolia Tree in owner's rear yard.

A large, mature Eucalyptus tree with dense green foliage is the central focus of the image. The tree is situated in a backyard, with a white fence and a house visible in the background. To the right, there is an outdoor dining area with a table, chairs, and a large patio umbrella. The sky is clear and blue. In the foreground, there are some smaller plants, including a fern. The overall scene is bright and sunny.
