

A photograph of a residential street scene. A large palm tree trunk is positioned on a concrete sidewalk, with its base encroaching onto the red brick-paved parkway. To the left of the sidewalk is a landscaped area with green shrubs and a white van. To the right is a street with a dark blue sedan parked in the foreground and a white USPS mail truck further down. In the background, there are houses and more palm trees under a clear sky. The image contains several black text boxes with white text.
