Reply-To: <dunbarlaw@aol.com>

To whom it may concern,

We support building the Windansea belvedere which is a structure that replaces the original belvedere that was vandalized and torn down in 1982 and never rebuilt despite promises to do so. We enjoyed using the old, original belvedere. This replacement will bring back the shade structure and seating originally at Windansea. We also support the proposed landscape plan, post-and-chain fencing, repairs to the stairs, and other improvements.

Sincerely,

Barbara and Dave Dunbar

I will not oppose the reconstruction of the Historic Belvedere at Windansea as the property owner across the street from the replacement.

To Whom it may Concern

I fully support re-building the historic Belvedere on the 6600 block of Neptune that was destroyed by vandals many years ago. It has been part of the history of the Windansea area and was enjoyed by the community at large until its unfortunate demise. The replacement with the new Belvedere will be welcomed by an enthusiastic local community as well as by visitors to La Jolla who love to sit and enjoy being in one of the most important and historic view-corridors of La Jolla.

It should be pointed out that the City of San Diego will not be paying the bill, rather the "Friends of Windansea" have offered to fund building this great community resource.

Thank you for your consideration of this important resource.

Dear Ms. Bucey,

I am writing this letter to add my sincere support for the restoration of the lost Belvedere at Windansea Beach lost so many years ago by vandalism.

Private funds have been raised and allocated for this project, any assistance you may lend in this historic project will be appreciated by current and future visitors to our beautiful beaches.

To Whom It May Concern:

As a very long time resident of the Windansea neighborhood, 55+ years, enjoying my beautiful "casa" by the sea I approve of the replacement of the historic Belvedere that once stood at Windansea Beach but was destroyed and torn down by vandals. The City of San Diego promised to replace it and it is my understanding the Friends of Windansea has raised enough money to replace the historical structure that is so representative of the character of La Jolla and more specifically, Windansea Beach, and my beloved neighborhood.

The Belvederes are not only charming but also provide shade for walkers, runners, and tourists to enjoy watching the magnificent surf. As a 97 year old that still likes to walk the beach at times I miss having a nice shady place to take a break. The historic Belvederes, this one in particular, are an integral part of our community and beach culture.

To Whom It May Concern:

As a 20-year Windansea resident, I strongly recommend the replacement of the belvedere at Westbourne. Sadly, the historic belvedere, built in 1912, was destroyed by vandals in 1982 and the City of San Diego has yet to fulfill its promise to replace it.

Thankfully, Friends of Windansea has raised the funds to replace this historic shade structure and I sincerely hope construction will begin sooner than later.

Dear San Diego City Council and Coastal Commission Members,

I am writing in favor of the Friends of Windansea proposal to replace the historic belvedere built in 1912 and destroyed by vandals nearly forty years ago. I have been so impressed over the last decade and more by the work of landscape architect Jim Neri to make the Windansea area of La Jolla more beautiful, more safe, and more accessible with a series of projects he and his team have completed efficiently and on budget.

Restoring the old belvedere, similar though more historic than a gazebo, to its rightful place would enhance our neighborhood, provide shade and offer great views. The project is in keeping with many efforts in the village of LaJolla to retain the human scale and authentic charm of our precious coastal waterfront.

Thank you for your consideration.

I am delighted to hear that Friend's of Windansea, have raised the funds to restore the Belvedere that was demolished by vandals, oh so long ago. The timing is perfect for this, as I, and many of my friends, are no longer able to sit in the sun, at the beach for very long. Having created sun damage from long days at the beach in our youth. Windansea, is an extraordinarily beautiful beach. The surf is one of the best breaks, I believe, in the world. Of course I want to spend as much time as I can watching it... The Belvederes provide not only the bench but the shade as well. So important today!!!! Please Support the reinstallation of this much needed Belvedere.

The City of San Diego has recently approved this wonderfully crafted enhancement to our previous WindanSea Shoreline Park Erosion Maintenance Plan. We lost the original belvedere in 1982 after 70 years of comfort, shade and a place to enjoy the extraordinary beauty of WindanSea Beach.

I urge all local groups and the California Coastal Commission to embrace this enhancement to our coastline and help restore the historic integrity to our world famous beach.

Re: Project No 666789

Westbourne St to Palomar Ave; Windansea Post and Chain Barriers, benches, trash receptacles and Belvedere (gazebo replacement)

To whom this may concern:

As a long-time resident of Windansea community, I am very much in support of this project being led by Jim Neri and the Friends of Windansea. These barriers are a needed continuation of like barriers already in place that prevent persons from walking over and further eroding the bluff between the beach and sidewalk; instead requiring beach access by the in-place wooden stairways.

The Belvedere structure is similar to those in place in Scripps Park, which are popular and provide needed seating, shade and views. They are also historic and part of the charm of these beaches. A similar belvedere existed into the early 1980's and was vandalized, where this one it to be placed. The City agreed then to replace it, but it never happened, and now Friends of Windansea has raised funding for it.

Very Truly Yours,

Glen Rasmussen

To whom this is of concern,

I write in support of the proposal to restore the small shade structure often referred to as a Belvedere, but also locally as a "whale watch" hut, to its proper former location.

I went to school (from elementary through high school) in La Jolla while we lived a block from Big Rock at the south end of WindanSea in a house we still own. The hut in question was part of my childhood.

It was knocked down illegally and should have been replaced by the City at that time, but the residents on Neptune Place immediately to the east of the hut took a "not in my front yard" stance making many unsubstantiated claims regarding late night activities, partying, drug dealing and noise, causing an attractive nuisance label to become attached to it.

Well, much has changed since then, most importantly an alcohol ban. This ordinance alone has altered the character of beach activities along all areas of the coast where it is in force, which also weakens claims by longtime and more recent (who have no idea) residents that the same alleged problems would naturally ensue. This is assumption and more NIMFY attitude.

I was fortunate enough to live on Neptune myself in the 1928 Magee property, 6663 #1, from '83-'88 before it was torn down. This was just south of the house where filmmaker Jim Weaver lived when he made his famous film about WindanSea in 1979, and later occupied by the infamous waterman and surfer, Al "Tiny Brain" Thomas.

Furthermore, anecdotally, when my grandfather lived just above the Shore Colony from the late '60s to the early '80s he used the original Belvedere as a shade stop on his afternoon "constitutional" along Neptune Place.

I strongly urge the City to right a wrong and replace the Belvedere, the only one built at WindanSea, as many will benefit by its existence, both locals and travelers alike. Don't let a few continue to spoil and obstruct the many.

As a longtime resident of the area, I walk almost daily along the coast at Neptune Place. There have been times when my aging knees are in desperate need for a place to sit and rest a bit. Dear Mr/Ms:

I recently heard that there were possible plans to replace the belvedere at Windansea Beach that was destroyed by vandals. I applaud that decision and hope that it is indeed replaced. As a beachgoer, I visit Windansea Beach and would love to see the belvedere replaced. Not only would it be visually pleasing but it would also be a place to rest in the shade as I and others enjoy the coastline.

As we all know, the California Coastal Commission welcomes improvements that draw people to the shoreline where they can enjoy our beautiful beaches. I truly believe that an improvement like this would be in line with what the Commission hopes to see.

I appreciate the group of folks who have independently raised the money to replace the belvedere. Our city is so financially strapped that any support offered by our citizens has to be congratulated and I encourage you to vote in favor of rebuilding the belvedere at Windansea.

Respectfully,

Hello Melinda,

At your request, I wanted to confirm my vote at the June 2020 meeting of La Jolla Parks and Beaches to support the replacement of the belvedere on Neptune Place.

My primary reasons for support were to provide shade for people walking along the coast, the fact that it will be just below street level to maximize views for residents across the street, and it replaces a historic type structure unique to La Jolla. I also preferred an open design similar to the belvedere at the intersection of Coast Boulevard and Coast Boulevard South to reduce privacy, thereby increasing the ability to monitor activity, and to reduce the likelihood for homeless sheltering and excessive merrymaking.

Thank you,

We are writing in support of the replacement of the historic belvedere at Windansea Beach. The original planners of our La Jolla coastline placed belvederes along the coast for the enjoyment of the public. Those that still exist add significant charm to La Jolla. The public should be able to walk along Windansea beach and sit for a spell on a bench or in the shade of a belvedere. There is NO shade at Windansea beach. The City has asked that La Jolla Parks and Beaches work to create more shade at the beaches.

We support replacing the original belvedere that existed for many years in this location until someone deliberately, maliciously, and illegally destroyed the belvedere. At the time of the destruction, the City intended to rebuild the structure but the money was not available. The City always intended to replace the structure when funds became available.

Now, a group of citizens who want to preserve our coastline and its usability and charm has raised the funds to replace the structure with the help of La Jolla Parks and Beaches.
