

4. PROPOSED HISTORIC DESIGNATION: SURF SHACK AT WINDANSEA BEACH, 6800 NEPTUNE PLACE (WEST SIDE), THE FOOT OF BONAIR STREET, LA JOLLA

Description: The Surf Shack at Windansea Beach has been a gathering place for the surfing community of La Jolla and San Diego since shortly after WWII. The approximate date of construction is 1947. The structure is believed to be the longest continued use shelter of its kind on the west coast and was partially reconstructed in 1953. The roof requires rethatching on an annual or biannual basis.

While this proposed designation is somewhat unique, it calls attention to the culture that many throughout the world associate with Southern California from the 40s through today. Many well known early surfers, such as Butch Van Arsdale, Pat and Tom Curren (current world champion) and surf board designer Mike Hynson, were associated with this structure. Although the original structure was a spontaneous creation of the surfing community in 1947, local engineer Don Okey is credited with the 1953 repair that has allowed it to remain standing to this day.

The Surf Shack recently received SOHO's People in Preservation "Gimme Shelter Award" for its historic reconstruction.

Please refer to the enclosed information packet provided by Melinda Merryweather for further information on this item.

Mr. Tony Ciani has indicated that he will provide additional data on this proposed designation and, time permitting, staff will do a supplemental mailing to Board members when it becomes available.

Staff Recommendation: APPROVE the historic designation of the Surf Shack at Windansea Beach as it is the quintessential embodiment of the surfing culture associated worldwide with Southern California and, at 50 years of age, the oldest continuously used shelter of its kind on the west coast.

5. PROPOSED HISTORIC DESIGNATION: THE EVERETT GEE JACKSON AND EILEEN LOIS JACKSON RESIDENCE
4671 HARVEY ROAD, UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS

Description: The Jackson residence is a two-story Spanish Colonial Revival-style structure located on Harvey Road, north of Golden Gate Drive. The property is accessed via Park Boulevard, west on Madison Avenue, north on Maryland Street and west on Golden Gate Drive. Please consult your Thomas Bros. map for more detailed directions.
