To Whom it May Concern:

I am a La Jolla resident and walk from my home in Lower Hermosa to the village of La Jolla along Windan Sea beach every morning. There is an element that frequents the Windan Sea area, especially at night, and residents are constantly dealing with theft, illegal parking, noise violations, trash, feces and vomit. The San Diego Police do not respond to complaints. This behavior does not just affect the oceanfront homes but all households in that immediate vicinity from the beach up to La Jolla Boulevard.

While a belvedere might seem like a quaint, sentimental idea, it will attract more of the same activity I have referenced above. Why don't we encourage the City of San Diego to provide more enforcement rather than encourage another site for further misbehavior and abuse? There is so much that could be done just to MAINTAIN improvements made along the coast that are constantly falling into disrepair and oblivion. And there is so much support we should be seeking from law enforcement.

I strongly oppose the building of a Belvedere along Windan Sea!

Very truly yours,
