

So I have a newsflash I've been waiting since Thursday to get an answer from the police department and I just got a call from Brandon I will spell his last name BROADDUS who said I could quote him that he has never seen anything bad happened at the Belvedere at Scripps Park he is the community relations officer for La Jolla for the police department