Architect

Email: lkriedeman@islandarch.com

Lisa Kriedeman is managing partner at Island Architects and has worked in the field of architecture since 1991, becoming a registered architect in 2008. After earning her degree in architectural and interior design, Lisa worked at Batter Kay, a Del Mar residential firm from 1991 to 1994.

In 1994 Lisa began working under the direction of CW Kim Architects, a commercial firm in downtown San Diego, where she gained experience in hospitality, medical, and high-rise buildings, as well as master planning. During her time with CW Kim Architects, Lisa gained experience in value engineering, project scheduling, planning, and the orchestration of large-scale projects, while implementing the computer and AutoCAD standards for the firm.

Lisa joined Island Architects in 1998 to pursue her passion in custom commercial and residential work. She has successfully managed multiple projects within the Coastal Zone and is a seasoned Project Architect. Lisa has remarkable skill as a successful negotiator and has a proven track record presenting to design review boards, advocating effectively for her projects throughout the various phases of permitting and to project completion.
